

KH.L.M.PP.2

Wat Phnom

Description

Phnom Penh, the capital of Cambodia, is home to the former Buddhist temple Wat Phnom. According to the legend, a rich widow named Daun Penh discovered four statues of Buddha in the trunk of a tree in 1373. Recovering her discoveries, she decided to build a pagoda next to her house to shelter the statues, the Wat Phnom.

Metadata

- City: Phnom Penh
- Country: Cambodia
- Cadastral Number: KH.L.M.PP.2
- GPS Coordinates: 11.5760° N, 104.9231° E
- Landmarks: Monuments